

BOURGOGNE/CHABLIS

The Bourgogne winegrowing region, a place with a unique heritage, enjoys a climate that is particularly well-suited to vine cultivation. The convergence of Mediterranean, continental and oceanic influences plays a major role in terms of the aromatic richness and global reputation of its wines.

Region

30,052 hectares of growing area for Bourgogne, among which 5,589 for Chablis

84 appellations

33 Grand Cru appellations

44 Village and Village Premier Cru appellations

7 Régionale appellations

Production

206 million bottles sold

€2 billion total worldwide sales

On average, 1 in 2 bottles is exported

People

3,577 wine growing estates

266 wine merchants

16 cooperative wineries

Impact

45,200 jobs created

2.9% of wine sales worldwide in terms of value

21% of exports of still French VQPRD wines

7% of total employment in Bourgogne

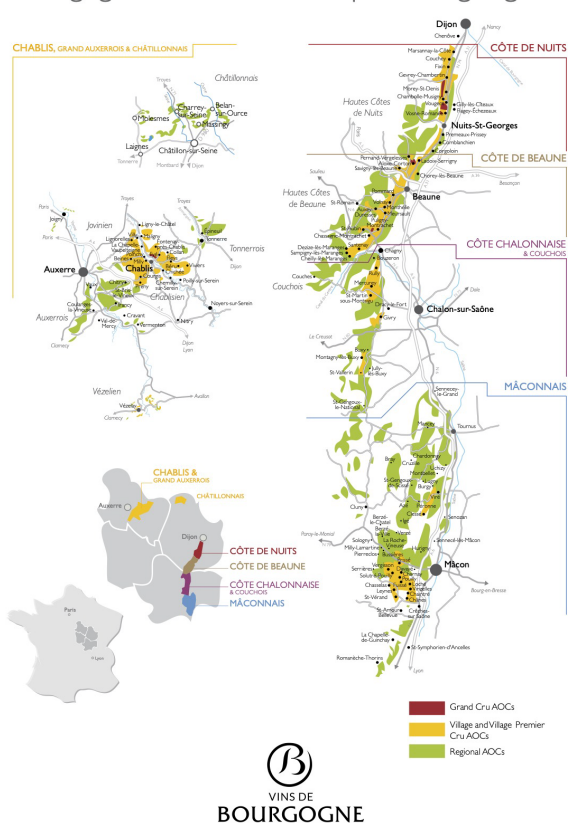

2% of GDP in the Bourgogne region

Primary Grape Varietals

Chardonnay | Pinot Noir

Source: All the figures for this page are average 2015-2019

Bourgogne and its five wine-producing regions

For more information, visit www.bourgogne-wines.com and www.chablis-wines.com or follow @BourgogneWines and @PureChablis on Twitter.

