

OREGON

Oregon is a leading wine producing state in the United States with 18 approved wine regions growing 72 varieties of grapes. Home to a diverse geo-climate, the state includes rolling hills, granite-crustrated ridges, basalt bluffs and sandy soils. Each of the appellations reflects the diverse range of microclimates and terrains found in the state.

Region

30,435 acres planted to vine

18 viticulture areas

Production

4.2 million cases produced

People

725 wineries

1,056 vineyards

Impact

17,099+ jobs created

$3.35+ billion in economic activity

$207.5 million in wine-related tourism

Primary Grape Varietals

Pinot Noir | Pinot Gris | Chardonnay

Riesling | Syrah

For more information, visit www.oregonwine.org or follow @OregonWineBoard on Facebook and Instagram.

